

BASH

Business and Society House

BASH is a Special Living Option housing area designed for prospective Smeal Students in Holmes Hall (at North Halls) and is within close walking distance of the Business Building.

Mission Statement

The purpose of BASH is to provide a launching pad for undergraduate students to explore Penn State's many opportunities and the professional world with a supportive community at their backs.

Questions?

Penn State Housing: housing@psu.edu

Julie Cutler, Faculty Adviser: jcc5081@psu.edu

See what BASH can do for you!

BASH provides students with the following opportunities:

Professional Development Opportunities (Business)

- Resume building/interview preparation
- Networking with corporations
- Industry speakers

Social Opportunities (Society)

- Study sessions
- Socials
- Sporting events

Volunteer Opportunities (Society)

- THON involvement
- Blood drives
- Food drives

High-quality Housing (House)

- Suite-style housing (two single or double rooms, a common room, and a bathroom)
- Air-conditioning with your own thermostat (you will appreciate this in the early fall and late spring!)

liveon.psu.edu/university-park/living-learning-communities

