MEET BELLA

Bella is majoring in Korean and Sociology with a minor in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL).

At Penn State, Bella is active within the Department of Asian Studies. She completes research, collaborates with faculty, participates in cultural events, and serves as a member in East Asian-themed and linguistics-themed student organizations, including the Asian Undergraduate Students Association. Bella plans to study abroad in South Korea to further her fluency skills and gain cultural exposure.

After graduation, Bella wants to move to South Korea to become an English educator. She also hopes to pursue a master's degree in Korean language and culture and/or sociology. Her end goal is to represent American-South Korean relations.
